

Skills for Influential Leadership

Dates	October 22-24, 2018 Begins Monday, 9am Ends Wednesday, 5pm
Fee	$2,250 GISC Members: $2,200
CE hours	22 - ICF
Faculty	Øyvind Larsen, Jamie Morin, Tracy Saunders, MA, and Michael Walsh

This workshop introduces GISC's model of influential leadership and presents the interpersonal skills that build highly effective groups and organizations. The focus will be on developing self-awareness and personal impact, understanding the cycle of change and how to productively handle resistance to change, and practicing techniques of managing teams.

Using a variety of feedback tools, participants will experience a rare opportunity to understand their impact and build awareness of their competencies. Practical opportunities will be provided to explore how to increase influence and accomplish objectives. Through small group leadership exercises and case work, participants will practice how to support effective group behavior, effectively manage differences, and work with the dynamics of change and resistance.

The program will present research and theory of this leadership model but will emphasize practice, reflection, and feedback. Through a combination of presentations, individual and small group exercises, and discussion, participants will gain a new understanding of what characterizes effective leadership—both for themselves and for others.

“Perhaps the most important takeaway from the course was to have the confidence in myself to be a leader. I can do it and, thanks to this course, I can do it well!”

Missy Clark
Director of Finance
Cape Cod Commercial Fishermen's Alliance

Benefits

Participants will learn, practice and apply core leadership concepts that will:

- Increase their impact and ability to get things done with others
